

In the passionate July, Kevin Group crossed mountains and seas and went to Istanbul, Turkey to participate in the highly anticipated food industry event - FI ISTANBUL 2025, the Turkish Food, Food Processing and Packaging Machinery Exhibition.

FI Istanbul 2025 attracted exhibitors and visitors from all over the world with more than 1,000 brands participating in the exhibition, building a platform connecting the global food industry chain.

From July 2 to 5, Kevin Group brought a number of core products to F ISTANBUL 2025, bringing high-quality natural oil processing products and ester products to global customers.

Thank you to every friend who gave us support and attention during the exhibition, and look forward to meeting you next time.
