Connect to our platform

The screenshot shows a web interface for connecting to the Pixyle AI platform. On the left, there is a sidebar with icons for home, upload, settings, and a product catalog. The main area displays a product image of a checkered shirt. To the right of the image is a form with the following fields:

- AI Title: A single-line text input field.
- AI Description: A multi-line text input field.
- Main attributes: A section with three input fields.
- Searchable attributes: A section with three input fields.
- Verify attributes: A blue button at the bottom of the form.
